IT is hereby notified that His Excellency the President, in terms of section 27(1) of the Civil Protection Act [Chapter 10:06], hereby declares as follows:—

1. This notice may be cited as the Civil Protection (Declaration of State of Disaster: Emergency Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation) (Amendment) Notice, 2026 (No. 1).

2. The Civil Protection (Declaration of State of Disaster: Emergency Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation) Notice, 2026, published in Statutory Instrument 91 of 2026 (hereinafter called the "principal notice"), is amended in the preamble—

(a) in ninth paragraph by the deletion of the words "and any other rivers";

(b) by the deletion of the tenth paragraph.

3. Section 5 ("Inter-Ministerial Committee on Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation to Direct Remedial Work") of the principal notice is amended by the repeal of subsections (4), (5) and (6).

4. Section 6 of the principal notice is repealed and substituted by—

"Working Party and National Riverine Rehabilitation Clearing House

6. (1) There shall be a technical subcommittee of the Inter-Ministerial Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Working Party"), chaired by the Deputy Chief Secretary of the Office of the President and Cabinet, and consisting of the following members or their authorised delegates—

(a) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for environment; and

(b) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for mining; and

(c) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for home affairs; and

(d) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for local government; and

(e) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for water resources; and

(f) the permanent secretary of any other Ministry whose representation is deemed vital by the joint Chairpersons of the Inter-Ministerial Committee, and whom the joint Chairpersons shall, with the leave of Cabinet, invite to partake as a member of the Committee either on an ad hoc or permanent basis; and

(g) the Commissioner-General of the Zimbabwe Republic Police, and representative each from the President's Department and the Defence Forces of Zimbabwe;

(2) The following is the mandate of the Working Party, which it shall exercise through its secretariat called the National Clearing House (whose composition is provided for in subsection (3))—

(a) to receive and examine applications from potential contractors answering to any invitation by the Inter-Ministerial Committee in accordance with the Third Schedule for proposals to undertake riverine rehabilitation in a particular locality; and

(b) to shortlist suitable applicants for referral to the Inter-Ministerial Committee for final approval of contractors to undertake riverine rehabilitation in particular localities; and

(c) to monitor, through the Environmental Management Agency, the Zimbabwe National Water Authority and the Provincial Mining Directors, the undertaking of reverine rehabilitation by approved contractors.

(3) The National Riverine Rehabilitation Clearing House shall be composed of the following members—

(a) the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for environment and the permanent secretary of the Ministry responsible for mining, who shall be joint chairpersons of the Clearing House; and

(b) the Director-General of the Agency, or his or her authorised delegate; and

(c) the Chief Executive Officer of the Zimbabwe National Water Authority, or his or her authorised delegate; and

(d) a representative of the Office of the President and Cabinet; and

(e) a member of the Minerals Unit established under the Mines and Minerals Act, appointed by the Secretary for Home Affairs; and

(f) a representative of the Gold Trade Enforcement Unit established under the Gold Trade Act [Chapter 21:03], appointed by the managing director of Fidelity Gold Refinery (Private) Limited; and

(g) a representative of the Procurement Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe established under the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Assets Act [Chapter 23:22], appointed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority.".