2. The spouses and members of the family forming part of their household of those Officers, Employees of the IATFCO and the IATFCO Entities and experts performing missions for the IATFCO and the IATFCO Entities, who are resident in Zimbabwe, shall be accorded the opportunity to take employment in Zimbabwe.

ARTICLE 16

Waiver of Immunities Exemptions and Privileges

1. The immunities, exemptions, benefits, assurances and privileges conferred under this Agreement are granted in the interests of the IATFCO Entities to ensure, in all circumstances, the freedom of action of the IATFCO Entities and the complete independence of persons.

2. The IATFCO may waive to such extent and upon such conditions as it may determine any of the immunities, exemptions, benefits, assurances and privileges.

3. The board of Directors of the IATFCO shall have the right to waive immunity, exemption or privilege in respect of any Officer or Employee of the IATFCO or expert performing missions for the IATFCO Entities, where, in its opinion, the immunity, exemption or privilege would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the IATFCO and/or the IATFCO Entities. In similar circumstances and under the same conditions, the board of Directors shall have the right to waive any immunity, exemption or privilege in respect of any Director.

ARTICLE 17

Notification of Appointments: List

The IATFCO Entities shall inform the Government when an Officer or Employee of the IATFCO Entities or an expert performing missions for any IATFCO Entity takes up or relinquishes his or her duties. Furthermore, the IATFCO Entities shall provide the Government with an updated list of all such Officers, Employees of the IATFCO Entities and experts from time to time but no more than once in a calendar year. It shall in each case indicate whether or not the individual concerned is a national of Zimbabwe.

ARTICLE 18

General Provisions

1. Without prejudice to the privileges and immunities accorded by this Agreement, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of Zimbabwe.

2. The IATFCO Entities shall take every precaution to ensure that no abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement shall occur.

ARTICLE 19

Co-operation

1. The government shall co-operate fully with the IATFCO in connection with all activities of the IATFCO Entities.

2. The IATFCO Entities shall co-operate at all times with the appropriate authorities of Zimbabwe in order to prevent any abuse of the immunities, privileges, exemptions and facilities provided for in this Agreement.

3. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right of the Government to take any precaution necessary for the security of the Republic of Zimbabwe. If the Government considers it necessary to apply the preceding sentence, it shall approach the IATFCO Entities as rapidly as circumstances allow, in order to determine, by mutual agreement, the measures necessary to protect the interests of the IATFCO Entities. The IATFCO Entities shall collaborate to avoid any prejudice to the security of the Republic of Zimbabwe.

ARTICLE 20

Consultations

1. At the request of either the Government or the IATFCO, consultations shall take place on any matter concerning the implementation, interpretation or amendments of this Agreement.

2. The Government and the IATFCO may enter into such supplementary agreements as may be necessary to fulfill the purpose of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 21

Licences, Permits and Other Regulatory Approvals

The Government shall facilitate, enact or issue any or all statutes or orders, consents and/or approvals or permits necessary or appropriate for the establishment and operations of the IATFCO (including any waiver required for the operation of the IATFCO Entities).

ARTICLE 22

Host Government Obligations for the IATF

1. The Government shall—

(a) waive import and customs duties for goods and products temporarily imported for exhibition at, or operations of, the IAATF, with a minimum threshold of USD 30 000 per IATF participant or exhibitor;

(b) ensure an efficient process for the re-exportation or return of unsold or unused goods, tools, or service items for exhibitors as well as goods or service items used in the operations of the IATF;

(c) provide marketing and promotion support for the IATF, including by—

(i) launching extensive on ground marketing efforts within its borders;

(ii) mobilising local businesses and industry leaders to participate in the IATF; and

(iii) advertising the IATF on national media outlets, government websites, and tourism platforms;

(d) ensure visa waivers (or, where not feasible, visa-on-arrival) for all IATF participants and exhibitors, with dedicated infrastructure at the various ports of entry and exit for the purposes of easy and quick passage;

(e) facilitate ease of movement for IATF participants and exhibitors by providing private shuttle services to and from the IATF venue(s) as may be required by the IATFCO Entities as well as expand existing public transportation routes to directly connect major hotels and key areas of the city with the IATF venue;

(f) be given, together with members of their family forming part of their household, the same repatriation facilities in times of international crisis as officials of diplomatic missions or international organisations; and

(g) be accorded inviolability for all their official papers and documents.

2. The Government must ensure dedicated transportation services for VIPs, with professional drivers, priority routes, and special access points at both the IATF venue and their various accommodations. Additionally, the VIPs shall be provided with the level of security, protection and other privileges to ensure their proper participation in the IATF. Nothing in this Agreement shall derogate from or replace any official benefits which accrues to such VIPs visiting Zimbabwe.

3. To ensure the proper delivery of the obligations of the Government under this Agreement in respect of the IATF, the Government shall ensure that all relevant measures are in place and shall confirm the same in writing (with a detailed report) to the IATFCO no later than three (3) months before the date of each IATF or sectoral exhibitions or conference events.

ARTICLE 23

Settlement of Disputes

Any question of interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement arising between the Government and the IATFCO shall be referred to arbitration under the International Chamber of Commerce ("ICC") arbitration rules whose decision shall be final and binding. The foregoing procedure shall be applicable in lieu of any other procedure for the settlement of disputes and neither the IATFCO nor the Government may bring action in court in respect thereof, except in order to enforce a decision of the arbitral tribunal.

ARTICLE 24

Amendments

1. Either Party may request in writing a revision, amendment or modification of all or part of this Agreement which, if mutually agreed upon in writing, shall come into force on such date as determined by the Parties. Any revision, amendment or modification shall be done without prejudice to the rights and obligations arising from or based on this Agreement prior or up to the date of such revision, amendment, or modification.

2. The Parties may enter into such supplementary agreements as may be necessary within the scope of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 25

Final Provisions

1. This Agreement shall take effect upon due execution by the Parties hereto on the date first above written. Each Party will immediately carry out any required procedural steps to enable it to meet its obligations under this Agreement.

2. This Agreement shall cease to be in force:—

(a) by mutual accord of the parties thereto; and

(b) if the IATFCO agrees to be hosted by another country.

3. Relevant provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be applied during a reasonable period after its termination in order to permit the settlement of the affairs of the IATFCO Entities and disposal of any property any IATFCO Entity wishes to dispose of in the Republic of Zimbabwe.

4. As soon as practicable after its establishment, each IATFCO Entity shall enter into a Deed of Adherence agreeing to the terms set out in this Agreement as if it were an original party hereto. The executed Deed of Adherence shall be delivered to the Government after entry.

5. The Republic of Zimbabwe acknowledges and confirms that each IATFCO Entity shall, upon establishment and without any further approvals, process or procedure, enjoy the benefits conferred upon it by this Agreement.

Entered into on this 30th day of October, 2025.
