IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Finance, Economic Development and Investment Promotion, has in terms of section 235 of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02], made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Customs and Excise (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 2026 (No. 128).

2. The Customs and Excise (General) Regulations, 2001, published in Statutory Instrument 154 of 2001, are amended by the repeal of section 144X (Rebate of duty on motor vehicles imported by retired public servants) and substitution with the following—

"144X. Rebate of duty on motor vehicles imported by retired senior public servants

(1) In this section—

"motor vehicle" means a vehicle aged less than ten years from date of manufacture at the time of importation, admissible under Commodity Codes 87:03 and 87:04;

"retired Constitutional appointee" means a person who retired after 30th June, 2022, and at the time of retirement held any of the following offices—

(a) Chief Secretary or Deputy Chief Secretary;

(b) Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of a Constitutional Commission;

(c) Commissioner of a Constitutional Commission; or

(d) any other office of an equivalent grade to those listed in paragraphs (a) to (c).

"retired senior public servant" means a person who at the time of retirement was employed by the Public Service Commission as a Chief Director or Permanent Secretary or those in their respective equivalent grades, and retired after 30th June, 2022.

DISTRIBUTED BY VERITAS
e-mail: veritas@mango.zw; website: www.veritaszim.net
Veritas makes every effort to ensure the provision of reliable information, but cannot take legal responsibility for information supplied.

(2) Subject to this section, a rebate of duty shall be granted in respect of one motor vehicle imported or taken out of bond by a retired Constitutional Appointee or retired senior public servant.

(3) Only one motor vehicle may be imported by a retired Constitutional appointee or retired senior public servant under rebate in terms of this section on a once off basis.

(4) No rebate of duty shall be granted to a retired Constitutional appointee or retired senior public servant more than five years after their date of retirement.

(5) The maximum import value in respect of which a rebate may be granted in terms of this section for any motor vehicle shall be—

(a) forty thousand United States dollars for retired Chief Directors and those in their equivalent grades; and

(b) sixty thousand United States dollars for the retired Permanent Secretaries and Constitutional appointees or those in their equivalent grades.

(6) No rebate shall be granted in terms of this section unless the retired Constitutional appointee or retired senior public servant furnishes the Commissioner with the following documents—

(a) an application letter to be considered as a beneficiary in terms of this section;

(b) a letter from the Constitutional Commission or Ministry where the retired Constitutional appointee or retired senior public servant respectively was last appointed confirming their date of retirement and position held;

(c) a copy of the intended beneficiary retired Constitutional appointee or retired senior public servant's driver's license.

(7) In consideration of an application for a rebate under this section, the Commissioner may revalue the motor vehicle in line with the existing customs valuation regulations in cases where he or she suspects undervaluation of the motor vehicle.".