1. A salary increase of USD$65 across all grades effective 1st May, 2025.

2. The food hamper has been removed and, in its place, a minimum amount of USD$82 added to the basic salary effective 1st August, 2025. Councils that have been paying above the agreed minimum shall continue to pay as such. All employers owing food hampers to their employees prior to this agreement are to clear their arrears.

3. The local currency component of NEC and trade union dues shall be paid using the prevailing official—interbank rate plus ZWG 6 on top of the prevailing official-interbank rate; e.g if the official rate is ZWG 27 per USD the rate to be used shall be ZWG 27+ZWG 6 =33. The rate will therefore be ZWG33 per USD.

4. All arrears to the NEC and trade union shall attract an interest at the rate of 10% of the amount owed. The interest on arrears may be waived if a payment plan is agreed by the parties and adhered to.

5. Any employer who owes an employee any amount arising out of any dispute in terms of the contract of employment irrespective of when the dispute first arose shall pay the amount owing at the prevailing salary rate irrespective of the rate applicable at the time the dispute first arose.

6. Effective 1st January, 2025, the early retirement age shall be 65 years, and the normal retirement age shall be 70 years.

This agreed to at Harare this 16th day of July, 2025.
