Statutory Instrument 100 of 2026.

[CAP. 12:05

Postal and Telecommunications (Retirement and Pensionable Age) Regulations, 2026

IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Information Communication Technology, Postal and Courier Services, in terms of section 99 of the Postal and Telecommunications Act [Chapter 12:05], after consultation with the Authority, has made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Postal and Telecommunications (Retirement and Pensionable Age) Regulations, 2026.

2. Any staff member employed by the Authority on pensionable terms before 1st January, 2025 may have a pensionable age of sixty-five years, with the option to retire at seventy years on full pension.

3. A staff member referred to in section 2 may, after giving three months' notice of retirement, be allowed by the Board to retire before the pensionable age at any time after reaching sixty years of age:

Provided that any retirement occurring after the staff member's sixty-fifth birthday and before their seventieth birthday shall be deemed to be early retirement.

4. (1) Any staff member employed by the Authority on or after 1st January, 2025, shall have a pensionable age of seventy years.

(2) Early retirement for a staff member referred to in subsection (1) shall be any retirement after the sixty-fifth birthday and before the seventieth birthday of the relevant staff member.

5. A staff member's pensionable age shall be documented on the employee's employment record for pension purposes.

6. These regulations shall not apply to persons who retired on or before 31st December, 2024.
