IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Finance, Economic Development and Investment Promotion has, in terms of section 235 of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02], made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Customs and Excise (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 2026 (No. 130).

2. Section 30 of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations, 2001, published in Statutory Instrument 154 of 2001 (hereinafter called "the principal regulations"), is repealed and the following is substituted—

"Application to be licensed as clearing agents

30. Any person who wishes to be licensed as a clearing agent in terms of section 216A of the Act shall submit an application in form No. 64 to each port of entry where he normally conducts business and furnish the following particulars or documents—

(a) the name under which the clearing agent will operate and the address of its principal office in Zimbabwe; and

(b) where the applicant—

(i) is a company, certified copies of the certificate of incorporation under the Companies and Other Business Entities Act [Chapter 24:31], and of the memorandum and articles of association of the company, together with the names of all shareholders and the directors of the company;

(ii) is a partnership, a certified copy of the partnership agreement, together with the names of all the partners; and

(c) the names and addresses of each director, partner, manager and employee of the clearing agent who will be authorised to act on behalf of the clearing agent at that port of entry for the purposes of the Act, together with proof of a minimum qualification in customs legislation and procedures at diploma level, certified by the Ministry responsible for Higher and Tertiary Education, and experience in the field of customs law and procedure, and their specimen signatures; and

(d) in the case of each director, partner, manager, and employee authorised by the clearing agent to access the customs computer system, in addition to the details specified in paragraph (c), the unique identification number for each such person issued by the Authority;

(e) proof of current membership of a recognised Clearing, Shipping and Forwarding Professional Association, body or board which has been established, whether voluntarily or by or under any law, for the purpose of exercising control over the carrying on of that profession, calling or occupation and which has power to take disciplinary action against any person who in the carrying on of such profession, calling or occupation fails to comply with or contravenes any rules or code of conduct laid down by such association, body or board:

(f) evidence that the clearing agent has the necessary resources to conduct customs business; and

(g) a tax identification number issued by the Commissioner of Taxes or the Commissioner for Value Added Tax.

(h) a valid tax clearance certificate issued by the Authority."

3. Section 31 of the principal regulations is amended by the insertion of a new sub-paragraph after sub-paragraph (ii) in paragraph (e) as follows—

"(iii) has been issued with a unique identification number by the Authority, to enable access to the customs computer system;"

4. Section 2(a) of the Customs and Excise (General) (Amendment) Regulations, 2017 (No. 88) published in Statutory Instrument 114 of 2017 is repealed.
