WHEREAS the Civil Protection (Declaration of State of Disaster: Emergency Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation) Notice, 2026, published as Statutory Instrument 91 of 2026 ("the principal notice"), declared a state of disaster throughout Zimbabwe with effect from the date of its promulgation, being the 28th of May, 2026;

AND WHEREAS rehabilitation works on the rivers specified in the principal notice remain ongoing and have not yet been completed to the satisfaction of the Inter-Ministerial Committee on Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary that the declaration made by the principal notice, and the powers, duties and arrangements conferred and provided for thereunder, continue in force pending completion of the riverine rehabilitation programme:

NOW, THEREFORE, His Excellency the President, in terms of section 27 of the Civil Protection Act [Chapter 10:06], hereby declares as follows:—

Title

1. This notice may be cited as the Civil Protection (Declaration of State of Disaster: Emergency Riverine Ecosystems Rehabilitation) (Amendment) Notice, 2026 (No. 1).

Extension of period of operation of S.I. 91 of 2026

2. (1) The declaration of a state of disaster made in terms of section 3 of the principal notice, and every power, duty, arrangement and provision conferred, imposed or made by or under the principal notice, is hereby extended and shall, unless sooner revoked or further extended, continue in force until the 28th of October, 2026.

(2) Save as amended by subsection (1), the principal notice shall continue to apply with full force and effect, including but not limited to the composition and mandate of the Inter-Ministerial

Committee, the National Clearing House Committee, and the rights and obligations of approved contractors set out therein.

(3) Any rehabilitation contract concluded under the principal notice, and the duration thereof, shall be read as extended consistently with subsection (1), in accordance with paragraph 3(1) of the Third Schedule to the principal notice.
